MEASURABLY IMPACTING THE COMMUNITY

This year marked many “firsts” for our United Way. We celebrated our first year of operation at the Compass Center, our first full year of ONE HALL meetings, the first year of children receiving books at well-visits through Reach Out and Read, and our first year analyzing the effects of poverty in Hall County. In addition, we hosted our first Read & Run race and read-a-thon. Although much was new - our focus on our mission of uniting people, organizations and resources to improve lives in Hall County has remained the same.

We began this year hearing from guest speaker and author, Bob Lupton. Bob challenged us to look at charity differently – to look at programs from the client’s perspective, and to restore dignity to their lives by never doing for someone what they can do for themselves. Using this guiding principle, we began to study the needs of Hall County from a new vantage point, and asked what United Way can do to help our most vulnerable citizens and build a community where everyone has the tools they need to achieve self-sufficiency. We learned through our monthly ONE HALL meetings, we listened to clients true needs at the Compass Center, and we studied the data through sessions with Scholastic and The Fanning Institute.

What we know is that this type of change does not happen overnight; it will take a long-term commitment, patient persistence and an open mind. We are committed to seeing this through and continuing to lead this change. We seek to change what is possible in Hall County by studying our service delivery systems and barriers to self-sufficiency, school success and healthy lifestyles.

This year our board of directors dug deep and asked the tough questions, and we will continue to study and challenge the status quo as we seek to create pathways out of poverty. It was a busy year full of successes, new opportunities and some challenges. We learned quite a bit this year, and we have given you a sense of the vision ahead that is informed by those learnings. I hope that you are as inspired as we are about what is ahead because when we are all in and Live United, each of us creating opportunities for others to succeed, poverty doesn’t stand a chance.

On behalf of all those who call Hall County home, thank you for your support of United Way. I hope that you take enormous pride in what we have accomplished together.

THE JOURNEY BEGINS

Our 2017-2018 campaign season was truly the beginning of a new journey, as we fully shifted our focus to creating pathways out of poverty for families in Hall County. Our kickoff event featured guest speaker and author of “Toxic Charity” and “Charity Detox,” Bob Lupton. Mr. Lupton helped set the tone for the year by sharing his wisdom from over 40 years of experience transforming communities. His insight provided inspiration for all business leaders, volunteers and nonprofits in attendance, to continue to work together to create solutions and restore dignity to those experiencing poverty in our community. The breakfast event was followed by a luncheon for elected officials, government employees and residential and commercial development professionals. Mr. Lupton and David Allman, founder and Chairman of Regent Partners LLC, furthered the discussion of building a community that supports all residents to thrive.

In order to break the cycle of poverty in struggling families, we must first understand poverty from the perspective of our most vulnerable citizens. Our monthly ONE HALL meetings are community-driven conversations held to align community goals and create an actionable plan to tackle the root causes of poverty in our community. Five Arena meetings were held each month — Adequate Affordable Housing, Hunger Alleviation, Comprehensive Health and Wellness for All Ages, Accessible Education for All Ages, and Economic Possibilities for All. These meetings provided an open, public forum for participants, including a cross-section of business leaders, community experts, donors, board members and nonprofit leaders, to join the conversation.

ONE HALL UNITED AGAINST POVERTY

READ LEARN SUCCEED

reading before reading

90% of a child's brain is developed by age three. That's one of many reasons why our Read Learn Succeed Program is so focused on the importance of reading from birth to help children achieve success in early childhood literacy and beyond. This year we launched Reach Out and Read in partnership with The Longstreet Clinic Center for Pediatrics. Over 4,000 age-appropriate books were provided by trained pediatricians at well-visits for children ages six months to five years. Our Reading Mentorship Program also served to give children the literacy skills needed to succeed in school by partnering K-3rd graders with an adult reader to develop and achieve reading proficiency.

As a young professional, it's important to connect, lead, and serve within your community. Our Young Leaders Society offers these opportunities to individuals and couples in their 20s and 30s in Hall County. Whether it's Luncheon with Leaders, one of our many leadership development events held at local businesses like Gold Creek, our Board 101 training, or our Barbecue and Skeet Shoot, being a part of our Young Leaders Society is a great way to grow personally and professionally and contribute to the vitality of our community.

YOUNG LEADERS SOCIETY
UNITED WAY OF HALL COUNTY

This past March, we celebrated the one-year anniversary of The Compass Center. It started as a one-stop community resource navigation center where struggling families could access existing services and providers through Hall County. The Compass Center has evolved into a valuable tool for us to gain insight into the true needs of those individuals and families living in poverty. This year through The Compass Center and 2-1-1 we have assisted over 2,000 clients in locating resources for needs such as rent or utility assistance, shelter, healthcare, employment, and transportation.

The Compass Center had the privilege of being the only Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) Program site in Hall County this tax season. Our IRS-certified VITA volunteers served eight Saturdays to provide free basic income tax return preparation with electronic filing to low-income individuals and families in our community. Through the commitment and passion of these volunteers, we impacted 256 families and helped them receive over $259,588 in federal refunds and $38,314 in state refunds.

COLLECTIVE IMPACT

We believe that to have the greatest impact on poverty in our community, we must have a collaborative effort to align our goals and the outcomes we want to achieve. This year we began that process by undergoing a community assessment which included collecting research from ONE HALL meetings, Compass Center client visits, and planning sessions with Scholastic and The Fanning Institute. Through these assessments, we developed a draft collective impact framework which we presented to our funded programs at an all-day retreat. This process continues and will be released to the community for collective buy-in.

After a year of many successes and learning opportunities, we wrapped up our 2017-18 campaign by celebrating raising $1.57M. We took time to thank our Funded Program leadership and many volunteers. Our Chairman's Award and GIVE, ADVOCATE, and VOLUNTEER Awards were also presented to well deserving recipients.

YEAR-END CELEBRATION

2018 United Way  READ & RUN
United Way of Hall County
HALF MARATHON 5K AND READ-A-THON

This year we hosted our inaugural Read & Run Half Marathon, 5K & Read-a-thon on Saturday, April 14. Our goal was to create a unique experience that would bring together people of all ages and athletic abilities to raise awareness about the importance of childhood literacy. There were many opportunities for those in the community to get involved, whether running in one of our races, participating in one of our many reading activities or exhibiting at our vendor expo. The event brought close to 200 attendees to South Hall and raised an additional $27,000 for our annual fundraising campaign.

Many thanks go to our Presenting Sponsor, The Longstreet Clinic, as well as our other corporate sponsors for their support during our first year of this event.

RECOGNIZING PASSIONATE COMMUNITY CHAMPIONS

CHAIRMAN'S AWARD THE LONGSTREET CLINIC

The Chairman's Award is given to a company that demonstrates high campaign excellence and whose support extends far beyond the annual campaign giving. The Longstreet Clinic has led in many ways. In May of 2017, they began a program that we believe will transform the lives and trajectory of the children in our community by giving a book at every well-visit with their pediatrician. Children from six months old to five years old receive an age and language appropriate book and instruction from the physician on the importance of early language nutrition through reading and storytelling. This is a huge commitment for pediatricians and administrative staff to take on but they were eager to partner and believed in the science behind Reach Out and Read. The Longstreet Clinic is now leading the way with this early learning investment.

Longstreet did not stop there. They continued to promote literacy efforts by sponsoring our inaugural Read & Run event in April 2018, knowing that encouraging healthy activity and reading for all ages is a worthwhile investment in the community they serve.

Longstreet also hosted an employee campaign, barbecue, and other fundraising activities, landing them in our Top 10 donor list.

GIVE Award JIM WALTERS

Each year, the GIVE award is given to an individual or company for instilling a giving spirit in our community. Jim Walters' generosity extends far beyond United Way to many in our community. His generosity has touched many lives, some knowingly and others through his legacy of giving that will extend to future generations. Since 1989, Jim Walters has given more than $351,000 to United Way. Jim continues to invest in the future of this community in countless ways.

ADVOCATE Award DOUG HANSON

This award is given to an individual who strives to represent those in our community who often don't have a voice. Doug Hanson has been a voice for the homeless in our community and is committed to making a difference in Hall County one life at a time. Doug works tirelessly to restore hope in our homeless community and has the tenacity to make a way for the hurting to find healing. His work serving as a volunteer and launching North Georgia Works is proof of his passion.

VOLUNTEER Award VITA PROGRAM VOLUNTEERS

It takes many volunteers from across the community to make United Way a success. We are proud to recognize our Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) Program volunteers who gave eight Saturdays and 365 hours to provide free basic income tax return preparation with electronic filing to qualified individuals earning less than $54,000 a year.
